

→ CAREER READINESS PROGRAM

Career + Self-Development

Proactively develop oneself and one's career through continual personal and professional learning, awareness of one's strengths and weaknesses, navigation of career opportunities, and networking to build relationships within and without one's organization.

SAMPLE BEHAVIORS

- + Show an awareness of own strengths and areas for development.
- + Identify areas for continual growth while pursuing and applying feedback.
- + Develop plans and goals for one's future career.
- + Professionally advocate for oneself and others.
- + Display curiosity; seek out opportunities to learn.
- + Assume duties or positions that will help one progress professionally.
- + Establish, maintain, and/or leverage relationships with people who can help one professionally.
- + Seek and embrace development opportunities.
- + Voluntarily participate in further education, training, or other events to support one's career.

→ What Is Career Readiness?

Career readiness is a foundation from which to demonstrate requisite core competencies that broadly prepare the college educated for success in the workplace and lifelong career management.

About NACE

Established in 1956, the National Association of Colleges and Employers (NACE) connects more than 17,000 career services and university relations and recruiting professionals, as well as the business solution providers that serve this community.

NACE believes in a world that is unifying in approach and where equal opportunities and equitable outcomes exist for all.
