Position Overview
This position comprises a three-year term, first as President-Elect, then as President, and finally as Past President and works closely with the other members of the Board of Directors, the NACE Executive Director, and the NACE staff to provide leadership and direction to the association.

Primary Responsibilities as President-Elect
1. Understudies the President and, in the absence of the President, performs the duties and exercises the powers of the President.
2. Represents NACE as requested by the President.
3. Leads review of by-laws changes as needed and prepares background information for Board consideration.
4. Assists the President with the performance review of the Executive Director.
5. Works with the Executive Director and the Executive Committee in preparing for volunteer appointments to the coming year’s strategic priority committees.
6. Serves as a member of the Executive Committee.
7. Serves on the Board of Directors of the NACE Center.
8. Serves on the Finance and Audit Committee.
9. Serve as one of the board advisors in conjunction with the VP-College and VP-Employer to support our annual Affinity groups. The number of groups per year may change due to the needs of the membership, but this opportunity gives the president-elect the opportunity to learn more about the various needs of the membership, gain insight into potential future leaders and build knowledge towards their future work of building committees and task forces for their upcoming year as NACE President.

Primary Responsibilities as President
1. Presides at all meetings of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee. The President approves the schedule and agenda for these meetings with the assistance of the Executive Director. Works with the Executive Director on arranging for ongoing strategic planning activity for the Board of Directors.
2. Supervises, under the direction of the Board, the management of the affairs of NACE as administered by the Executive Director and monitors financial operations within the annual budget. The President keeps the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee and NACE members informed on NACE activity through reports and regular communications.
3. Appoints chairs, members and board advisors to committees for the year in which he/she serves as President. In advance of taking office, consults with the Board and Executive Committee on the appointment of strategic priority committees and the designation of charges for the coming year.
4. Represents the association membership at professional meetings and to the public/media as appropriate.
5. Conducts the performance appraisal and the setting of goals for the Executive Director.
6. Serves as Chair of the Executive Committee.
7. Serves on the Board of Directors of the NACE Center.
8. Reaches out to Board members for support of special events (Board meeting receptions, dinners, transportation) for the January and July Board meetings.

Primary Responsibilities of the Past-President

1. Represents NACE as requested by the President.
2. Serves as Chair of the Sourcing and Nominations Committee.
3. Serves as a member of the Executive Committee.
4. Serves as Chair of the Board of Directors of the NACE Center.

General Board Responsibilities

1. Actively participate in regularly scheduled Board and Board Committee meetings. Read background materials distributed prior to meetings and share expertise and perspectives as part of meeting discussions. Provide candid and constructive feedback, advice and comments concerning all aspects of the association with the intent to strengthen the organization’s efforts and provide value to members. Support all decisions that are arrived at by the Board of Directors.
2. Demonstrate actions consistent with the ethical and legal obligations of Board service and in support of the NACE organizational values and Principles of Professional Practice.
3. Be an advocate for NACE with appropriate constituents and interested parties. Help members and others interested in the work of the association to better understand the programs, services, and value offered by NACE membership.

Committee Responsibilities

1. Executive Committee: The President chairs the committee comprised of five NACE officers and serves as a committee member when President-Elect and Past President.
2. Finance and Audit Committee: The President-Elect serves on this committee as defined by the NACE Bylaws.
